AROUND THE DIOCESE

Racial Understanding: A Path Forward - August 3 & 10 at 6:30 p.m. (via Zoom)

Last September at the first of the "Learning Conversations" series, about 55 black and white people discussed racial issues through the Contemplative Dialogue process that we will once more utilize to continue this good work. The purpose of these four sessions is to bring people into relationship in order to seek new understanding of those who may be considered "other." We'll begin each night with a short key-note address by local leaders of racial understanding followed by small group discussions. These four dialogues will flow from what we know as the paschal mystery: the Life, Death, Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus Christ. As such, the flow of these evenings will follow this line of progression in terms of our own racial journey in today's culture. To participate and receive a Zoom invitation, send an email to dfrachey@chiaracenter.org by 4 p.m. on July 20. Please mention "Racial Understanding."
